

How separable is FIPER's nominal data from its test episodes? (logreg)

Q1 / Q2, observation embeddings only: AUROC of an oracle logreg that has the success/failure labels, cross-validated over episodes; the band is a 95% t interval over the folds. 0.5 means the oracle cannot tell the two apart -- which is the regime the one-class FIPER benchmark has to work in.

